

THE LIE WE INHERITED ABOUT STRENGTH

BREAK A BONE. PEOPLE SHOW UP.

*"Say you're drowning.
The room goes quiet."*

INHERITED, NOT CHOSEN

The stigma is inherited, not chosen

WHERE WE GO WRONG

We confuse support with problem- solving

The personal trainer double standard

WHAT STRENGTH ACTUALLY IS

Two kinds of strength

THE PRACTICE

What breaking silence actually looks like

A FINAL WORD

The wall cracks one conversation at a time
