

Name: _____

Date: _____

Breaking the Lie Practice

Part 1: The Inheritance Inventory

Reflect on your upbringing by matching these statements to the concepts of strength versus weakness.

word bank: Independence · Self-reliance · Vulnerability · Stoicism · Suppression · Emotional Expression

	Inheritance Belief	Concept
1.	The belief that asking for help is a sign of personal failure.
2.	The idea that keeping problems hidden makes you look tougher.
3.	The lesson that emotions should be kept private at all costs.
4.	The view that relying on others is fundamentally wrong.

Part 2: The Cost of Silence

Answer the following questions based on the personal impact of concealing struggles.

1. How has carrying burdens alone affected your ability to trust others?

.....
2. What is one physical or emotional sign that you are holding in too much?

.....
3. What usually happens to a problem when you decide to name it out loud?

.....

Part 3: One Small Act of Breaking the Pattern

Consider how you can challenge the lie that struggle is weakness through intentional action.

The Truth I Am Carrying:

The Person I Could Tell:

My Plan for When Discomfort Hits:

Answer Key

Part	Answers
Part 1: The Inheritance Inventory	1. Vulnerability 2. Stoicism 3. Suppression 4. Self-reliance
Part 2: The Cost of Silence	1. Answers will vary 2. Answers will vary 3. Answers will vary
Part 3: Breaking the Pattern	Answers will vary. These prompts are reflective and personal.